WHO SOWED THE SEED?

Charles R. Brewer

[Editor’s Note: Several years ago, I had the opportunity to preach at the Power lectures in Southaven, MS on the parable of the tares. In doing the research for that chapter, I came upon this poem which I chose to read at the end of my lesson. I remember that brother David Lemmons appreciated it enough that he later sent it out on his e-mail list to a large number of people. It has become one of my favorite poems. In my estimation, brother Brewer was one of the greatest poets among us. I send it out to our alumni today in hopes that it will be a source of encouragement to you as you sow seed in His name...Mike]

Who sowed the seed? None could recall.
But somewhere, in the bygone years,
A toiler in the ground let fall
A seed that in the soil took hold,
And through long months of heat and cold,
Increased and spread, till now appears
An annual harvest of rich gold.

Who planted the tree? Nobody knew.
But someone, sometime, set it out,
And it through rain and sunshine grew,
Although no eye was near to see,
Till from the little tender sprout
There came a sheltering giant tree
And many a pilgrim breathed a prayer
Of thanks for him who put it there.

Who sowed Good Seed? Perhaps not now,
But in eternity we’ll know,
The Master then will tell us how
Some gentle soul, devoid of fame,
Proclaimed a truth in His Great Name,
Showed someone else the way to go.
And then another, seeing the light,
Turned from the way of doubt and wrong,
And followed the pathway of the right.

And thus the good work moved along.
But only in Heaven will it be known
By whom the original seed was sown.

MSOP LECTURES PODCAST

MSOP is now registered with the Apple iTunes store. Just go there and search for MSOP and download the lectures. One friend enjoys listening to lectures as he takes his daily morning walk.

NEW STUDENT INTAKE

Besides the returning second year class, MSOP took in twelve new students this summer and an additional thirteen students at the beginning of the new school year for a total of twenty-five students in the first year class alone. In addition, two more students will be coming in January and there are yet others who have applied and may be accepted. We rejoice that the student body continues to have a good number each year.

Let us keep these students and their studies in our prayers. The Lord's church desperately needs faithful men to preach the gospel. Only those who have attended MSOP really know of the sacrifice and financial hardship which is often involved in making this commitment. If the congregation where you attend is not now supporting a student, please do what you can to see that such be considered by those in leadership. If as an alumnus of the school, you could support the school on an individual basis, or buy a student's books, or contribute to the building fund, any and all help is greatly appreciated.

Also, if anybody wants a representative of MSOP to speak to your elders or to your congregation to explain the work of the school, the need for support, or to encourage men to preach and be trained at the school, please contact the office. They will be glad to assist you.
