

ARCHAEOLOGY
and the BIBLE

*Part V: Illumination
of the New Testament*

Illumination of the New Testament

- How does archaeology illuminate the Bible?
 - By shedding light on the historical contexts of Scripture
 - By demonstrating that God's people did not live in a "vacuum"

A Boat on Galilee

The Galilee Boat

Herodium

Herodium

Herod's Palace

Herod's Tomb

Model of Jerusalem

Machaerus

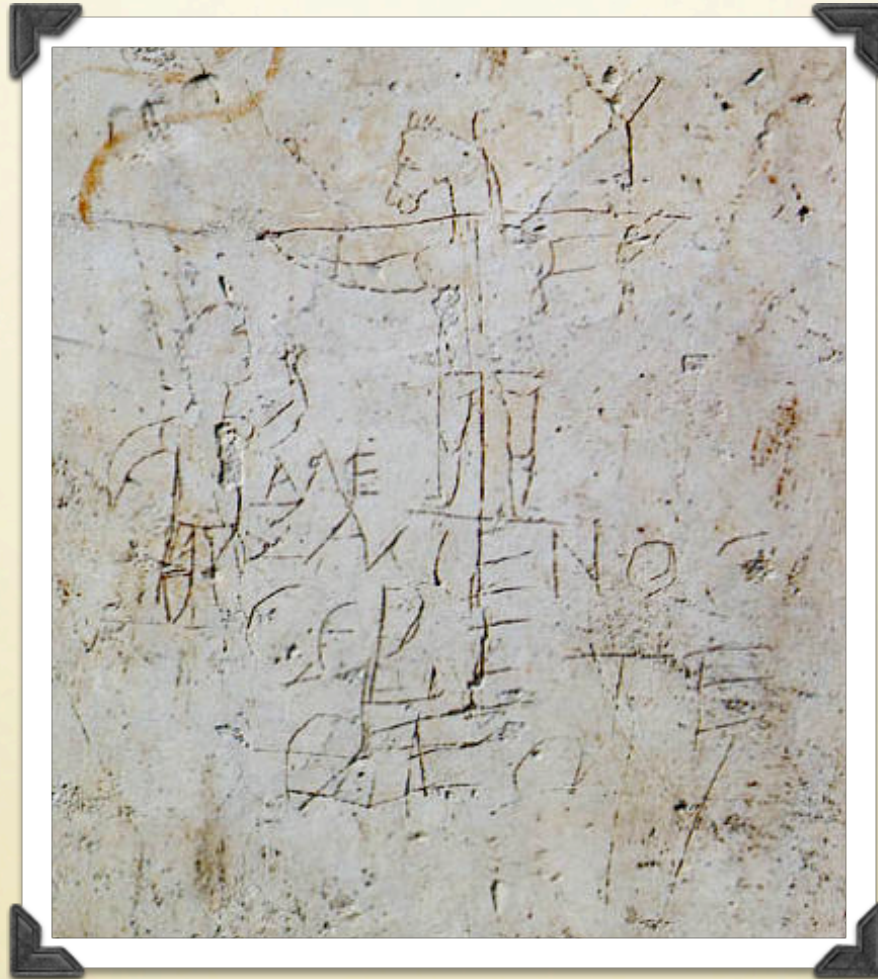

Caesarea Maritima

Yehohanan's Heel

Alexamenos' Graffito

Tomb with Rolling Stone

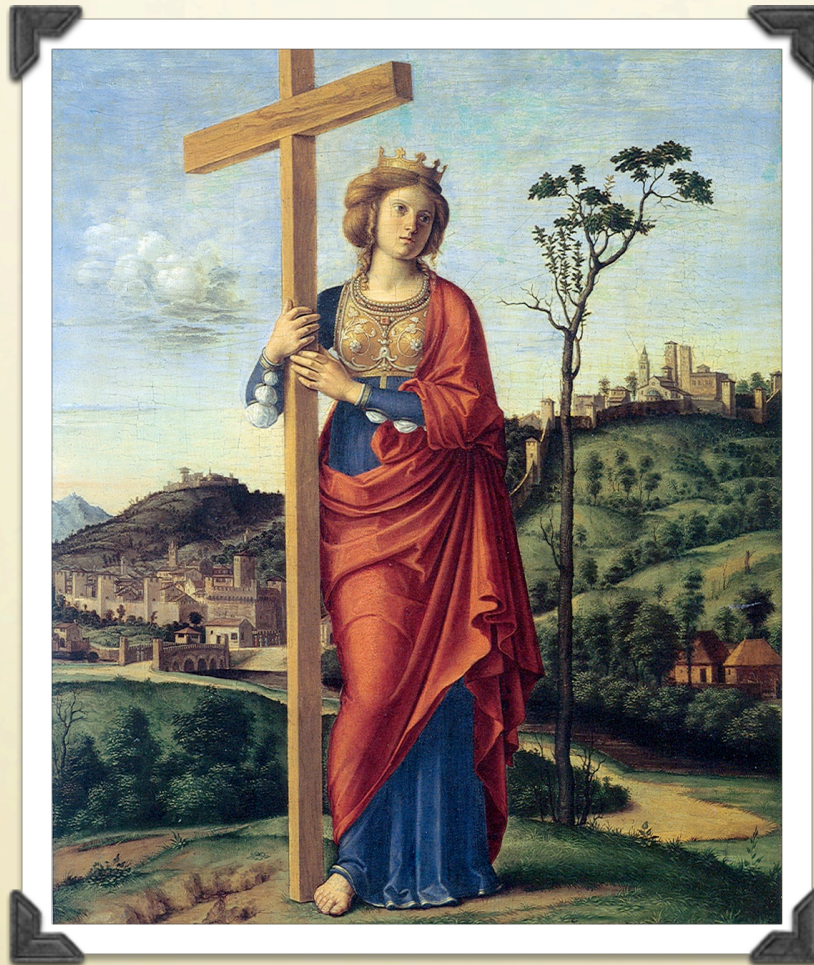

Constantine

Milvian Bridge

Helena

St. Catherine's Monastery

The Church of the Holy Sepulchre

Traditional Prison of Christ

Traditional Location of Crucifixion (Golgotha)

Traditional Site of Joseph's Tomb

Rock of Golgotha

Theater at Ephesus

Masada

Masada Palace

Western Wall

“Wailing” Wall

Prayers in Wall

The End