

EZEKIEL

INTRODUCTION:

1. The country-priest, prophet of the captivity has been a central figure in literary criticism and form criticism thought.
2. He was in exile and lost his wife there. His teaching is the background for synagogue.

- I. PROPHECIES AGAINST JUDAH AND JERUSALEM (1:1-24:27)
 - A. Introduction: The call of Exekiel. (1:1-3:27)
 1. Superscription. (1:1-3)
 2. The prophet's inaugural vision: A theophany. (1:4-28)
 3. His initiation into the prophetic office. (2:1-3:27)
 - B. Overthrow of city and state predicted. (4:1-7:27)
 1. Four symbolic actions concerning Jerusalem. (4:1-5:17)
 2. Oracle against the mountains of Israel, seat of idolatry. (6:1-14)
 3. Dirge over the downfall of Judah. (7:1-27)
 - C. The sin and fate of Jerusalem. (8:1-11:25)
 1. Vision of four abominations practiced in the temple. (8:1-18)
 2. Vision of inhabitants slain by divine avengers. (9:1-11)
 3. Vision of Jerusalem destroyed by fire. (10:1-22)
 4. Vision of the internal condition of the city and the Lord's departure from it. (11:1-25)
 - D. Moral necessity of the captivity. (12:1-19:14)
 1. Symbolic actions depicting exile and invasion. (12:1-20)

2. Prophecy and its abuses. (12:21-14:23)
3. Parable of the grapevine. (15:1-8)
4. Allegory of the foundling. (16:1-63)
5. Parable of the vine and the two eagles. (17:1-24)
6. God's justice shown in his treatment of individuals. (18:1-32)
7. Allegory of the two lions and the vine. (19:1-14)
- E. Isreal's coming downfall inevitable and necessary. (20:1-24:27)
 1. Review of Israel's unfaithfulness, and her preservation. (20:1-44)
 2. Israel to be punished by God's avenging sword. (20:45-21:32)
 3. Jerusalem's sins to be judged in the smelting furnace. (22:1-31)
 4. Allegory of Oholah and Oholibah. (23:1-49)
 5. Symbols of the final siege of Jerusalem. (24:1-27)
- II. ORACLES AGAINST FOREIGN NATIONS: THE UNIVERSAL SOVEREIGNTY OF GOD. (25:1-32:32)
 - A. Ammon. (25:1-7)
 - B. Moab. (25:8-11)
 - C. Edom. (25:12-14)
 - D. Philistines. (25:15-17)
 - E. Tyre. (26:1-28:19)
 - F. Sidon. (28:20-26)
 - G. Egypt. (29:1-32:32)
- III. PROPHECIES OF THE RESTITUTION OF ISRAEL (33:1-39:29)

The New Covenant: Purification of Israel, her restoration.

 - A. The prophet: His function in preparation for the new age. (33:1-33)
 - B. The royal house: The selfish shepherds of Israel and the Good Shepherd. (34:1-31)
 - C. The land: Israel to be restored and made fruitful. (35:1-36:38)

1. Hostile Edom to be devastated. (35:1-15)
2. Israel to be exalted and blessed. (36:1-15)
3. Redemptive principles illustrated. (36:16-38)
- D. The people: Resurrection of the dry bones of Israel; reunion of Judah and Israel. (37:1-28)
- E. Peace: The Lord to defend Israel against Gog's invasion. (38:1-39:29)
 1. Invasion of Gog and his destruction. (38:1-23)
 2. Resumption of prophecy against Gog. (39:1-29)
- IV. VISION OF THE RESTORED COMMUNITY: (40:1-48:35)
The new Temple and the new law.
 - A. Description of the new Temple. (40:1-43:27)
 1. The new sanctuary with its courts and chambers. (40:1-42:20)
 - a. The courts, walls, and porches. (40:1-49)
 - b. The Temple and the Holy of Holies. (41:1-26)
 - c. Chambers for the priests. (42:1-20)
 2. Return of the Lord to the Temple. (43:1-12)
 3. The altar and provisions for the dedication of the Temple. (43:13-27)
 - B. A new service of worship and an ideal ministry and sacrificial system. (44:1-46:24)
 1. Those who may minister in the Temple. (44:1-31)
 2. Portions of land for the priests, Levites, and the prince; and the dues paid to the prince. (45:1-17)
 3. Offerings to be made at the feasts and other appointed seasons. (45:18-46:24)
 - C. Israel reorganized according to tribal division. (47:1-48:35)
 1. The life-giving stream issuing from the Temple. (47:1-12)
 2. Boundaries and division of the holy land. (47:13-23)
 3. Portions of the tribes, priests, city, and prince. (48:1-35)

